Monthly Newsletter

SEPTEMBER 2024

One Day National Seminar

Chakbal group in collaboration with IEDS and the African Asian Rural Development Organisation (AARDO), organised a one day national seminar on “Women and Youth Empowerment in Rural India”. The seminar focused on the challenges and opportunities faced by rural women and youth in their journey towards economic and social empowerment. The keynote speaker H.E. Dr. Manoj Nardeosingh, Secretary General, (AARDO), New Delhi shed light on the international ties between India and Nigeria and spoke for the betterment of women across both the countries.

The discussions also centered around various government schemes relating to women empowerment like—Drone Didi, Lakhpatti Didi and Solar Mama. Participants who have benefitted from these schemes were invited to share their personal experiences, illustrating how these initiatives have transformed their lives. It helped the participants gain a better understanding of empowerment initiatives and tools that can help women and youth shape their futures.

ICSSR Longitudinal Project on ‘Migration Patterns and Inclusivity in Higher Educational Institutions of Kerala’

IEDS, Noida in collaboration with Centre for Development Economics at Delhi School of Economics (DSE) received a longitudinal project from ICSSR. The Project titled “Migration Patterns and Inclusivity in Higher Educational Institutions of Kerala” aims to systematically investigate the current trends in student out-migration from Kerala, with the goal of gaining a comprehensive understanding of the motivations and outcomes associated with this movement.

The research will involve an extensive survey across various districts of Kerala, engaging with students, alumni, and educational institutions to gather insights into the reasons behind the decision to pursue higher education outside the state. The study will explore factors such as the perceived quality of education in Kerala, the appeal of institutions in other states, and the socio-economic backgrounds of migrating students. This study on Kerala’s education system, student migration, and the socio-economic impacts of educational choices holds significant relevance for policy making, societal development, and the achievement of broader development goals. By addressing critical issues and providing comprehensive insights, the study can contribute meaningfully to various aspects of governance and societal progress.
